

BLACK HISTORY MONTH CHALLENGE

at your Milwaukee Public Library

FEBRUARY 1-28, 2025

Join the Milwaukee Public Library in celebrating Black History and uplifting Black voices. From February 1-28, 2025, all ages can participate by completing three of the activities below. Any combination is accepted -- multiple submissions are allowed! Complete and return the entry form below or track your progress online by March 1, 2025.

- Read a book about Black History.
- Read a book by a Black author or illustrator.
- Watch a movie or documentary on a Black History change-maker, or unsung heroes.
- Listen to an audiobook by a Black author or about Black History.
- Use a library database such as Hoopla, Overdrive's Libby app, Kanopy, or ABC-CLIO American Mosaic - The African American Experience.
- Attend a Black History Month program at your Milwaukee Public Library.

Black History Month Challenge Kickoff Event

Saturday, February 8, 10:30 am-2 pm

Milwaukee Central Library | 814 W. Wisconsin Ave.

Celebrate the kickoff of our Black History Month Challenge in a day of art, activities and fun for all ages.

Visit mpl.org/BlackHistoryMonth for more info, additional resources, and to sign up online.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH CHALLENGE ENTRY FORM

ADULT

TEEN (ages 13-18)

CHILD (ages birth-12)

Name _____ Phone _____ Email _____

Activity 1: _____

Activity 2: _____

Activity 3: _____

Return to any Milwaukee Public Library by Friday, March 1, 2025 to be eligible for a prize drawing. A special thank you to MKE Black for their prize donation.

